

October 25, 2004

Donald B. Crawford, President

THE STAND
ENDORSEMENT GEORGE W. BUSH
FOR PRESIDENT

We the Crawford Broadcasting Company and I as its President enthusiastically endorse George W. Bush for re-election as President of the United States of America.

I as President, and the majority of our employees, urge you to vote for Mr. Bush on November 2, 2004. We think Mr. Bush is the right man for the next four years for the following reasons.

President Bush is pro-life. Mr. Bush believes that abortion is wrong, dead wrong, and that partial birth abortion is wrong, even barbaric. Mr. Bush would support legislation which would end this barbaric practice or limit it to the most extreme cases.

Mr. Bush is for a constitutional amendment which would prevent same sex marriage. That amendment would define marriage as the union between one man and one woman only. We believe, as does Mr. Bush, that marriage as so defined is the most important principal in the structure of our society, and absolutely necessary for its continuation. Marriage so defined is spiritually, culturally and biologically right.

We enthusiastically endorse the re-election of George W. Bush as President of the United States of America because he and his administration have done great things for education. That includes supporting voucher, private and parochial schools. This president has gotten nowhere near the credit he deserves for the tremendous progress made by education in our country. The programs at work with new demand and principles are the best we Americans have had in decades. We give credit to Mr. Bush for so much of this progress, and urge you to vote for him because of that.

Mr. Bush has championed the greater activity of faith-based organizations in all matters of public life, and has urged the investment and funding by the federal government for the activities of such organizations. Mr. Bush is a proponent of religion and public life, alive and well, contributing significantly to the values and possibilities for our great country. We believe that Mr. Bush will champion that part of the First Amendment which demands that Congress make no law or otherwise interfere with or abridge the freedom of religion, including its expression, practice and interaction in public life. Anything faith-based is under attack by secularists and in need of apologists and defenders now more than ever. We believe Mr. Bush to be the champion of such things.

That is consistent with his principles and the faith which he embraces for his own life.

The Stand- Endorsement George W. Bush

October 25, 2004

Page-2

We believe that Mr. Bush is against euthanasia. We think he believes as Christians do that any intentional killing is done without mercy. We think no governmental agency, federal or state, should have the power and authority to kill another human being, and we believe Mr. Bush believes the same way.

We urge you to vote for the re-election of George W. Bush because we believe Mr. Bush will make certain that God is not excised from public life as all secularists would wish to accomplish. God is part of the very fabric, the very being of our country. We are and always have been ONE NATION UNDER GOD. We believe Mr. Bush embraces that concept, that principle not only politically, but personally. Any attempt by any human being to eliminate God from American Life is both futile and foolish. We think Mr. Bush believes that.

We urge you to vote for George W. Bush, a man of extreme principle and faith. America requires a leader in the next four years with character, values and faith which Mr. Bush has in abundance.

We hope that you are registered to vote. We have urged you to do so for it is your privilege and duty as an American. On November 2, 2004, we urge you to vote, and even more importantly, we urge you to vote for George W. Bush as the next President of the United States of America.

God bless America!

DBC/dw